

Groia & Company Professional Corporation of Lawyers, a securities litigation boutique, is currently seeking an

Articling Student to join the firm for the 2024/2025 articling term

Ideal candidates will demonstrate a strong interest in securities and corporate/commercial litigation, excellent written and verbal communication skills. solid academic credentials, strong work ethic, excellent interpersonal skills and good organization.

Interested candidates are invited to send applications (including a cover letter, resume, law school transcripts and reference letters) in confidence by email to Kimberley Dillon at kdillon@groiacom.com.

We thank all applicants, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.